

Consulting Services

We can support you throughout the entire operating period of the power plant to extent its lifetime and save costs.

Turbine plant procurement

Technical specifications and specifications for service agreements

Engineering

Technical knowledge during engineering phase and quality control of manufacturing

Operation and maintenance services

Bench marking and market reviews, maintenance advisory services for vendor selection, procurement, quality control

Due diligence

Turbine Plant technical and maintenance assessment

Quality Control

Vendor verification and quality assurance of a repairs, quality control of field services at site.

Manufacturing quality control

Turbine Plant manufacturing quality control covering all equipment (turbine, generator, load gear, air inlet system, auxiliaries)

Long-term Service Agreement specifications and procurement

Selection of right service agreement, service agreement specifications, procurement

Benchmarking

of current maintenance costs and best practices market review of alternative service providers

Annual assistance

in field service/IGT repairs/new parts procurement incl. specifications

Read more at...

“Using GASRE LTSA bench marking and market review combined with TMMonitor full picture on our gas turbine, we could make future estimates for parts rotation and negotiate a cost effective LTSA agreement.”

www.gasre.com